GENERAL RULES

- All livestock entered into the Walton County Fair are subject to all applicable Federal, State, Local and Provincial statutes, regulations, ordinances, and rules pertaining to food chain safety. Livestock entered are subject to any and all random tests.
- Unless specified under the division, there will be a limit of one entry per person per class.
- All items entered for competition must have been made or grown this year, except for livestock.
- Division entries will be first given to Walton County residents and members of Walton County clubs first. Divisions will then be opened to entries from surrounding counties.
- All premiums and cash awards may be picked up from Division Chairpersons when your item is retrieved.
- Early removal of any item WILL FORFEIT CASH AWARD.
- If income for the Walton County Fair is affected adversely by weather or other factors making it impossible to pay the cash awards listed, all monies will be reduced by the same proportion.

- The Walton County Fair is not responsible for loss or damage to items at the Fair. Every effort will be made to protect items.
- Entry time for all non-livestock items is the Saturday before the Fair opens from 9 AM – 4 PM.
- EXCEPTION: Baked Goods will be accepted on Sunday before the Fair opens, from 1-4 PM, with judging to follow at 4:30 PM
- Entry time for all other livestock is the day of show; check rules for times.
- Entries must be made at the Walton County Fairgrounds. No entry will be accepted or returned via US Mail.
- Senior Citizens are those age 64 and over.
- Pick up for all items is Sunday, 1 PM – 4 PM. Unless prior arrangements are made. be picked up by 4 PM on Sunday. Entries removed prior to Sunday, or not picked up by the designated times will be disposed of, and all premium ribbons and cash awards will be forfeited.
- All decisions by the judges in any given division are final.
- A judge may disqualify any exhibit that is deemed inferior to the standards of the Walton County Fair.
- A Health Certificate must accompany all horses, sheep, goats, cattle, and swine.
- Horses must have a negative Coggins test. There is no exception to this rule.
- Smoking is not allowed on the Walton County Fairgrounds
- Anyone found vandalizing the bathroom(s) will be asked to leave the property immediately. The extent of the vandalism will dictate if charges or restitution is pursued.
- Security is paramount. Anyone who poses a security risk will be asked to leave the property immediately.
- Alcohol and glass bottles are not allowed on the Walton County Fairgrounds.

- Objectionable attire is prohibited. Anyone wearing revealing clothing or clothing with vulgar sayings or curse words will be asked to leave.
- Lost and found will be located in the Walton County Fair Office.
- Any children separated from their parents should go to the front gate entry area or either door to the main building to get help. Volunteers will be in those areas at all times.
- Ticket booth operators on the Fair Midway have communication devices and this would be a good area for lost family members to find each other as well.
- The Walton County Fair is a family friendly establishment. Anyone found conducting themselves in a manner contrary to this will be asked to leave immediately.
- Halloween style masks or props are prohibited.

Purchase Award for Walton County Scenes

The Walton Co Art League sponsors the Purchase Award for the Walton County Fair. The Art League will purchase a painting from a local artist. Paintings from previous years are on display at the DeFuniak Springs City Hall. If you are interested in entering that category, entry rules are found online in the Fine Art category at www.waltoncountyfair.com. In addition, the following also apply:

- The scene must be a recognizable Walton County scene (even if the site is gone, you may submit a painting done from a photo).
- The art must be a painting: oil, acrylics, watercolor, pastel, or mixed media are acceptable (photos are not accepted in the Fine Art category).
- The winning painting is considered a purchased painting, and the owner surrenders all rights to the painting. The WCAL will hang the painting for display in a local county/city office.
- The painting must be framed and ready to hang (gallery-wrapped canvases, which are those with sides 1 1/2 inches deep or more, need not be framed if the sides are also painted. Gallery wraps without the wraps (sides) painted will not be judged for purchase).
- The painting must have been done within the last year.
- There will be only one purchase award in either of two different size categories:
- A painting with a picture size up to 11 x 14 inches or 154 square inches, if selected, would be purchased for $100, or any larger painting will be awarded $200.

- The award is an actual purchase, and the artist must surrender the painting to the Walton County Art League upon acceptance.

Walton County Schools Elementary Chorus Groups

Chorus Night Rules:

- All performers will be supervised at all times by Walton County teachers and DeFuniak Springs Police Department. Kids performing are allowed free entry into the building. A designated meeting area will be set up for the kids to wait for their group and meet their choral director. Once the kids are in the designated meeting area they are not allowed to leave until their teacher allows them to or checks them off.
- All parents, guardians, grandparents, and siblings must pay entry into the building

Walton County Schools Art Exhibition

Schedule:

Entry Time: Determined by the schools

Release Time: Sunday, October 13, 2024, 1 PM- 4 PM

Awards:

Premiums: Will be paid for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Place.

Ribbons: 1st Place, 2nd Place, 3rd place, and Participation.

Walton County School Art Rules:

- Exhibitor must be a resident of Walton County attending public, private, or home school in grades Kindergarten-twelfth grade.
- Only individual works will be accepted. Group work is not accepted.
- Artwork must be original and have been completed in the current school year. Computer or CAD work must be clearly annotated as such; otherwise, art must be originals.
- Home-schooled children's entries must have the student's name, age, grade, and instructor's information (name/address/phone # for contact) on them. Individual instructors are responsible for providing the students' artwork, but public school teachers may display it for home-schooled children as long as the artwork is clearly marked as belonging to a home-schooled student. If the home-schooled student attends a public school art class, the work will be exhibited with other public school students' art.
- Private schools may submit works by their students adhering to the public school rules. I.e., a complete list of entries including name (first and last), age, grade, and contact information for the individual responsible for hanging, collecting, and answering questions regarding exhibits or prizes awarded.

Walton County Schools Art Division Rules:

- Only one entry per child. A child may also enter in Youth Art division but may not use the same artwork for both school and Youth Art sections. Youth Art entries MUST adhere to Fine Art rules and regulations.
- Each piece will be mounted on a single piece of construction or other solid-colored paper for affixing to display. Pieces may be matted but not framed. Framed entries may be entered in Youth Art. The bottom right corner of the paper should have the student's grade prominently marked with a permanent marker or a color-coded dot. USE ONLY ONE COLOR PER GRADE. DO NOT MIX GRADES.
- Teachers will group students by grade within their respective schools. Please try to keep grades in consecutive order when mounting exhibits to the display boards. Each grade will be displayed on only ONE SIDE of the display board (e.g., put first grade all on one side and another grade on the backside.)
- Each entry will have the child's FULL name, grade, and school so that pieces that should become detached can be returned to the correct instructor/entrant. Failure to provide an entrant's full name may result in delayed or non-issuance of checks for monetary prize awards.
- Schools that do not have more than three students per grade will group students for judging in the following manner: Kindergarten through 5th, 6th through 9th, and 10th -12th. If an insufficient student's population is present for that grouping, students will be grouped: Kindergarten through 5th and 6th through 12th.

- A printed and electronic list of entries must be provided to the Walton County Fair. The list must have the teacher's name, school, and a phone number for contact, as well as an email address. The entries should be sorted by grade and, within-grade, alphabetically by last name. A computer-generated list may be emailed to Janis Hannon at JanHannon@hotmail.com (Xcel is preferred), but a printed list must be provided when the artwork is dropped/hung. The computer lists will aid judges in marking entries for ribbons/prizes and publication. If a parent has an objection to displaying the student's information, please let the coordinators know, but information MUST be provided to fair officials for participation and prize awards.
- Teachers are responsible for setting up the displays and for disassembling displays at the end of the Fair. Displays must be in place no later than 4:00 PM on the Saturday preceding the fair start date. This includes home-schooled students' exhibits as well as private schools' students.
- Teachers are responsible for selecting a first, second, and third prize from each of their grades. The list provided to fair officials must clearly annotate which entries are selected for each grade and have the child's information available. The list should also contain a full list of all entries, whether awarded prizes or not. Honorable mentions can be selected at the teacher's discretion. There will ONLY be a first, second, third prize for each grade (e.g., if there are five first grade classes within a school, there will be one first, one second, one third premium award in first grade selected from combined classes).

- Displays must remain in place throughout the entire fair period. Displays will not be removed before 9:00 PM the final night and will be removed no later than 4:00 PM on Sunday after the Fair ends.

ELIGIBILITY AND REQUIREMENTS:

- Youth from Walton County based schools 4H and FFA may participate.
- All ages are as of September 1 of the current year. No one under 8 yrs. or older than a senior in High School can participate in the Walton County Fair (WCF) Swine Show.
- Entries due NO LATER THAN the last Friday of May. Entries are due to WCF designee and are on a first come first served basis as space allows. If there are more entries than space allows then participation will be determined by WCF swine committee and WCF Board.
- There is a limit of 1 entry per exhibitor.
- Animals must weigh between 200 and 300 pounds at WCF swine check-in to be eligible for awards. One weigh back only.
- All entries should be market quality hogs with no feral influence and must not be fed food intended for human consumption. Note: feral hogs may carry the diseases you will be tested for, therefore do not house your project in areas of known occupation of untested animals.
- Animals above or below the required weight range will not be allowed to sell at the WCF exhibitor auction. However, they may be used for showmanship only – on Tuesday THEN these pigs must be removed from the WCF premises. The exhibitor is personally responsible for said animals and MUST NOT make any sales on WCF property.

- All animals must comply with all health and quality standards for show and sale.
- Any animal failing to meet these standards may be disqualified at the discretion of Show Chairman, and a committee of 2 WCF board members. This is to protect the health of all animals and the integrity of the Walton County Fair.

ENTRY, PAPERWORK AND FEES

- Entries due NO LATER THAN the last Friday of May. Entries are due to WCF designee and are on a first come first served basis as space allows
- All required forms and fees are due at this time for the entry to be complete and accepted.
- Exhibitors may be required to attend mandatory meetings as deemed necessary by WCF swine committee / WCF Board. Pig-U will be held May 18 at Walton County Fairgrounds, 8 a.m. until.
- A $15 nonrefundable processing fee is due upon submission of all paperwork. Fee payable to Walton County Fair.
- All Exhibitors are required to submit an IRS form W-9. Exhibitor's SSN # is required on W-9. This form is required for anyone receiving winning/funds totaling $600 or more. Each exhibitor will receive a form 1099-Misc from Walton County Fair.
- State law requires a pork check off fee be deducted from the sale proceeds. This may be a percentage of sale proceeds and may vary animal to animal according to actual sale value.

SHOWMANSHIP AND AWARDS:

- Age calculated as of Sept 1st of current year.
- Junior Division: 8-10
- Intermediate: 11-13
- Senior: 14-18 (enrolled Senior)
- Note: Swine committee reserves right to further divide the divisions into “heats” to ensure fairness to all exhibitors. Those selected from each heat will compete for overall division awards
- Premiums/Awards will be given to 1st – 3rd place of each division

MARKET CLASSES AND AWARDS

- WCF swine committee has discretion to divide swine into workable classes based upon number of head entered and weight ranges.
- Premiums and ribbons will be awarded 1st -10th (This could vary more or less as weights dictate).
- The first-place winner in each market hog class will compete for Grand Champion. Hogs that placed second will be on standby. The pig placing second to the Grand Champion will be included into the championship drive for Reserve Champion Honors.
- Based on total entries and quality a 3rd and 4th overall champion may be selected from those remaining class winners and second placing animals
- Additional awards will be awarded to Champions selected
- NOTE: 2023 saw the first carcass evaluation and top 5 were selected. This is extremely beneficial industry related information and we hope to continue this as sponsorship allows.

- 3% of the total sale price of the swine will be charged per animal by the Walton County Fair. This will help with expenses of judges, plaques, ribbons, as well as future improvements to the livestock area.
- Premium checks will not be issued until ALL paperwork including buyer thank you letters are submitted.
- Each exhibitor is required to write thank you letters to those who purchased their animal. These letters must be in stamped envelopes and turned in to the FFA Advisor or 4-H leader no later than December 20, 2024. If acceptable thank-you letters are not received by the FFA advisor or 4-H leader by the below dates, the below stated amount of the exhibitor's check will be forfeited to the Walton County Fair. No checks will be disbursed until all monies are received by the fair association. Thank you letters not turned in by.... December 20, 2024, exhibitor will forfeit $100 of check amount... January 31, 2024, exhibitor will forfeit $200 of check amount. Forfeited funds will be used for improvements on the livestock area. * FFA Advisors and 4-H leaders will determine what is deemed "acceptable", and provide copies of thank you letters to Walton County Fair.

Show rules:

- All animals shown at the owner's risk.
- A special needs exhibitor may request assistance in the ring from another entered exhibitor for their class.
- The show trend is longer hair on the pigs. No hair can be less than ½" on body. Again the trend is basically no clipping on the body with limited trimming on neck, head and ears.

- Animals must be groomed and prepared prior to entering the ring.
- Advisers will designate appropriate official dress for their organization. FFA outdoor official dress is appropriate and 4-H may wear white shirts with black (not blue) jeans. Closed toed shoes are required
- A show stick, and a grooming brush or towel should be in the exhibitor's possession as they show.
- Pens will be assigned by the committee to facilitate easy transitions. Their decision is final.
- Pens should have signage to acknowledge sponsors and animal information. A sign acknowledging the buyer of the project must be in place by 5 P M Friday. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of all premiums and awards.

SWINE SALE:

- Swine sale will be held Thursday evening of the fair week
- All participants must obtain buyers for their project. Exhibitors must write at least 3 letters to prospective buyers. The exhibitor must provide a copy of the letters along with addresses of the prospective buyers to the FFA Advisor, 4-H agent or swine chairperson NO LATER THAN 1 WEEK PRIOR to checking in on official weigh in date. If buyer letters are not submitted 1 week before check in then that pig WILL NOT be allowed to check/weigh in.

- All pens must be cleaned and the barn “presentable” for prospective buyers to view animals by 4:45 PM on sale day.
- This is a public auction
- Swine are sold on a price per pound basis. (Bid amt. x weight = Total amt. paid)
- Payment is due at the end of the sale or to the Walton County Fair office or Swine Chairperson no later than 14 days after the sale.
- Winning bidders must designate, on auction night, the processing destination for the animal. The winning bidder may wish to not take possession of the animal and may offer it for resale. Original buyer is responsible for the total amount they bid. Resale buyer is responsible for the total amount they bid.
- The exhibitor is required to exhibit their animal during the sale process.

SALE ORDER:

- (1) Grand Champion (2) Reserve Champion (3) “if offered” 3rd overall (4) “if offered” 4th overall
- Top 5 Carcass Champions follow. (some of these could sell in the above categories)
- Following these champions will be the remainder of the class placing pigs.
- Remainder of any 1st place animals
- Remainder of any 2nd placing pigs
- Remainder of any 3th place
- 4th place, 5th place, 6th place, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, etc.... heavy weight hogs then light weight hogs.
- All Resale Money will be distributed to the participants. Method to be determined by the Walton County Fair Board.

- The exhibitor must furnish care and feed during the week of the Fair
- The fair association will provide morning feeding duties. Please contact barn personnel upon arrival if your pig has a particular feed. Labels to identify your feed and written instructions may be advisable.
- Exhibitors are only allowed entrance to the fairgrounds after 2 PM. Anyone arriving earlier to clean their pen or feed will be asked to wait in the parking lot or leave the property
- Exhibitors must clean pens by removing used and dirty shavings and care for their animal between 2 PM and 4:45 PM Monday through Friday and by 8 AM on Saturday. Any pens not cleaned by the fair opening times will be charged a $50 fee per day which will be deducted from premium earnings. Fee will be distributed according to fair policy.
- Only exhibitors, fair staff, volunteers, Board Members, Ag. Teachers, 4-H agents and swine chair are allowed in the barn area between 2:00 PM and 4:45 PM (except on show day). This time is dedicated to students cleaning their pens. All other siblings, parents or other caregivers may wait in the arena area or grassy area next to swine barn.
- During the show on Tuesday, and auction on Thursday only students, show volunteers, Ag. Teachers, 4-H Agent and swine committee members are allowed in barn area 15 minutes prior to starting and 15 minutes after conclusion.
- Exhibitors MUST sign up for “shifts” to help maintain clean walkways during the entire week of fair. Exhibitors are to maintain a clean facility for spectators to view animals, ensure safety to animals and report any issues to fair swine staff. Community service hours may be credited by Organization leaders.

- Entries will remain in barn until released by Swine chairperson Sunday morning. This facilitates the swine committee with load out of swine exhibits.
